Pacific Mail Advances on Expectations of Subsidies.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit Shows Mucl Animation-Dealings in the Indus trial List Affected by the Addistor Case Decision-Little Effect by Transactions on Foreign Account

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.-The stock market opened fairly active, but with a rather unsettled tone, conspicuous exceptions to the general tendency were Pacific Mail and Chesapeake and Ohio. The first-named stock advanced on advices that the President's forthcoming message to Congress, would strongly urge the subsidization of American lines engaged in trade with foreign countries. There was no particular exception to the reactionary tone in the remainder of the market, but recessions there which in some instances extended 16 per cent were noted.

Interest in the market, apparently well deserved in new quarters, escaped atten-tion. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was a fea-ture in respect of activity and the trading was also heavy in Sugar Refining and United States Leather.

The industrial quarter generally was effected by the unexpected Supreme Court decision in the so-called Addiston case, although a better conception of the merits of that question is now generally held. The large market for stocks showed small and irregular changes and the dealings here for foreign account were not particularly effective in the local market. There was an absence of fresh develop-ments in the financial situation over Sun-

New York Stock Market. Corrected daily by W. B. Hibbs & Co., members of the New York Exchange,

The stock market this morning was somewhat erratic, as was to have been ex-pected, but during the two morning hours more declines were scored than advances. The opening was at about Saturday's clos-ing prices, and Pacific Mail and Federal Steel, common, immediately showed good advances, which helped the general list for a few moments. At 11 o'clock, despite fair-ly easy money rates, and London buying, reaction set in everywhere in the list. The supposition in the Street was that there would be a rally before the close and of the President's message. What will come immedately upon that is a matter of armise simply. It seems quite certain, owever, that the Pacific securities and the low-priced issues generally should be bought on any reaction

As had been predicted, Pacific Mail was e of the features of the market today, closed at 47 3-8 on Saturday after an advance of a point that day. This morning it opened at 47 3-4 and quickly advanced to above 49. The gossip regarding the early subsidy bill campaign is, of course, the immediate cause of the buige, accompanied probably by buying for the Congressional ontingent. It should be remembered, owever, that there is the best sort of foundation for higher prices in Mall it other directions than the subsidy bill, This measure will make the earnings of the company enormous, but its present rapidi growing general business and valuab Government contracts very certainly make the stock worth more than its present price apart from all easy expectations.

The Pacific securities generally and Northern Pacific, common, in particular, are outright the best securities on the list i intrinsically. There was buying of Northern Pacific in London this morning, but the stock sold off fractionally on this side apparently on realizing orders. There was good buying at the recession. The meeting of the directors of the company will take place on December 13, and it is said that a 2 per cent dividend will then be declared on the common stock out of the immense surplus earnings. Friends of the stock advise buying it for an advance dis-counting this action. Southern Pacific tumbled nearly to 42 this morning, the lowers price in several weeks. Insiders brought on the decline

Federal Steel was one of the strong features of the early market, despite some misgiving regarding the possibility that the Supreme Court might hand down the decision in the "Addyton Pipe Trust Case." It advanced to above 63, the high-est price in recent months, and inside buying was apparent. Others of the Steel and Wire securities also showed activity. The adverse decision of the Supreme Court, which was handed down at 12 o'clock, was the cause of much comment pro and con, much uncertainty as to its scope being manifest on all sides.

Book Island was dull at the opening, by it seems probable that the stock may be taken up this week on the excellent statement of the company for October. The net surplus for the month was $1,004,960, an increase of $61,031. This stock has been neglected for several weeks, but there is of a proposed advance. sip in usually well-informed quarter

There is a tip to buy Hocking Valley,

The Trunk Lines freight people will hold an important meeting tomorrow, for the purpose of discussing advances in rates. It seems probable that the meeting have a good effect on the market

The October statement of the Norfolk and Western shows an increase in the surplus of $86,833. The increase from July in gross earnings was $723,238, and the incre in surplus $169,618.

WALL STREETERS ARE IDIOTS. Charles T. Yerkes Says Speculation

Is a Losing Came. CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Charles T. Yerkes, the millionaire, denied yesterday that be would enter Wall Street and try for a is place in society after di of his holdings in the street railways here.

"The man who enters Wall Street is an idiot," he added. "The speculator is sure to lose in the end. I don't care how much he has. When he starts that way a guardian ought to be appointed for him.

"I defy any broker to show me any man who has dealt with him for two years of more-a ticker player-who has come out with money. I haven't looked at a stock ist for thirteen years.
"As to the man who seeks to be a star in society, he is-well, foolish."

A REPORTED RAILWAY DEAL Part of a Larger Plan.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Dec. 4 .- There is story here that the sale of the Evansville and Terre Haute road last week to the Chicago and Eastern Illinois is part of a larg. er deal, by which the consolidated properties will be sold to the Vanderbilts' Four" Company. In 1893 the sale of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois to the "Big Four" was about to se consummated, when the panic caused a suspension of negotiations.

The Evansville and Terre Haute is owned by the Rockefellers, and it is pointed out that their interests and those of the Van-derbills have been harmonized, making possible the sale of the property, which, intil recently, its owners did not want to
